

UPI

Tedious hobby

Denny Gribskov of Junction City works on a piece of handmade lace. This particular piece will be used to edge a pillow case. She is making the lace using the bobbin method. The design takes 46 bobbins and is made at a rate of an inch an hour. She says she doesn't work on the lace full-time, it's only a part-time hobby and she does it for relaxation.