TURN WASTE

MAKE OLD MATE

IT is much more profitable to convert old rags, worn out carpets, grain bags, etc., into beautiful house-furnishings than to sell the material to the rag-man for a fraction of a cent a pound. The large number of looms we are constantly selling and the enormous quantity of this kind of rugs and carpets in use prove the soundness of the weaving proposition. It is a popular occupation—both pleasant and remunerative. Just see what pretty and practical things any man, woman, boy or girl can make on one of our simple looms.

WEAVING PAYS

AN IDEAL BUSINESS SPARE OCCUPATION

HOME WOVEN GOODS of every kind are in demand as never before. People everywhere are turning to have weaving done or to buy hand-woven carpets, etc., are used by everyone and are at the height of popular favor.

BESIDES WEAVING Colonial pillow tops, etc., anyone can weave table covers, hand bags, portieres, mats, and an almost endless variety of home furnishings, just from waste.

WARP IS

The only new material you need to weave, it requires only a fraction of a pound of old carpet. During the war, warp was scarce, then, weavers saved their customers by selling the cost of new goods. Now they can make more and save their customers by selling warp at cost to users of the loom. Prices are quoted on the slip enclosed.
