

TO OUR READERS:

We wish to thank our many subscribers and patrons for their purchases of our TERRACE TEXTURE Weaving Lessons and for the letters of enthusiastic comment that have come from those using them. These are most heartening and appreciated.

TERRACE TEXTURES will not be published during 1958, but you may be assured that you will be among the first to know of any future publications of weaving information.

We wish all to know that the whole of TERRACE YARN SHOP'S publications is still available, either in groups of lessons or individual lessons. Our SPECIAL OFFER of reduced prices extends through January, 1958, so that any purchases may be applied toward the complete library price or units if desired.

Again, our thanks for your patronage, and with our very best wishes for a happy weaving horizon, we remain,

Very cordially yours,

TERRACE TEXTURES

NOTE: The Pattern Threading for the Tote Bag shown in Basic Design #9 was inadvertently omitted. It will be observed that this is the same warp as that in #1 of the series.
