Register Now!
Join the Information Session:
APPLYING FOR PAID INTERNSHIPS AT NASA
ARMSTRONG FLIGHT RESEARCH CENTER
(CALIFORNIA)
Applications For Summer Internships Due: March 1, 2015

Audience
Undergraduate and Graduate students

Minimum Qualifications
United States citizen and a GPA of 3.0+

About this Information Session
Led by NASA Armstrong Flight Research Center’s Office of Education, this session will address how to find and apply for NASA internships, what subject areas are available to students, and how to get your application noticed, etc. Light Snacks will be provided.

Presented by
Oscar Murillo
MUREP Institutional Research Opportunity (MIRO) Project Manager

Rebecca (Becky) Flick
Education Specialist & Student Coordinator

Date, Time, and Place
Date: Friday, January 23, 2015
Time: 1:30pm (Meet and Greet NASA reps) - 2 pm (info session) – 3:30pm (Meet and Greet)
Location: UA Flandrau Science Center

Registration through Career Services: Here Click on January 23 in the calendar to view the event and register.

Note: Before you can use this system, register with Career Services at https://www.career.arizona.edu/web-store/register-with-career-services

BEFORE YOU ATTEND this session: We highly recommend you watch this Informational video on internship opportunities: https://intern.nasa.gov/documents/student%20guide.mp4

Can’t attend but want to APPLY: Go straight to the application page and get started: https://intern.nasa.gov/ossi/web/public/main/

Hosted by

Questions? spchavar@email.arizona.edu